

The only change to the no call list rules is to make even fewer organizations able to use telemarketing. The Banking industry should not be exempted/partially exempted.